

Board Responsibilities – A snapshot

Board responsibility	Nature of the board's approach to this responsibility:	The board could improve its approach by:	Specific action (s) you think should be taken to implement the improvement
Determine the organisation's mission, vision and values
Engage in strategic planning
Formulate needed policies
Approve and monitor the organisation's operations and projects
Ensure adequate financial resources
Provide effective fiscal oversight and ensure sound risk management

Board responsibility	Nature of the board's approach to this responsibility:	The board could improve its approach by:	Specific action (s) you think should be taken to implement the improvement
Appraise and support the CEO and agree his remuneration and the remuneration of the Executive Understand and respect the relationship between Council and Executive Act as a responsible employer
Enhance the board's public image
Carefully select and induct new trustees
Carry out council's business efficiently
Review the effectiveness of Council

Board responsibility	Nature of the board's approach to this responsibility:	The board could improve its approach by:	Specific action (s) you think should be taken to implement the improvement
Fundraising encourages public trust and confidence and is carried out lawfully

List up to three issues you believe the board should focus its attention on in the next year (please be as specific as possible)

Please return your completed questionnaires to [] by close of business on individual responses will not be attributed and will be kept confidential.