

7 STEPS TO CREATING FORWARD THINKING BOARDS

1. Examine the richness of the board's agenda.
2. Have regular performance discussions with the CEO.
3. Provide Induction thereby creating a robust understanding of organisational strategy.
4. Consider how directors rate their impact, how effective they are and how satisfied they are with their work.
5. Analyse leading indicators and aspire to review robust non financial metrics.
6. Follow comparable progressions.
7. Spend significantly more time on strategy, core governance and compliance related activities, performance management, collaborative efforts, organisational health, talent management, business, and risk management.